The day was followed by a visit and presentation of the Swiss Center Shanghai.

Canton of Neuchâtel Delegation, October 2013

The Swiss Center, in partnership with the Office for Economic Promotion of the canton of Neuchâtel, had the great honor of welcoming the delegation of the Republic and canton of Neuchâtel in Shanghai and Yangtze Delta region. The delegation was led by the Economy Minister, Jean-Nathanaël Karakash, the former Swiss Ambassador to China, Blaise Godet, and key actors from the political, academic and economic world.

The purpose of their trip to Shanghai, was to better understand the opportunities and challenges that China represents today. During the visit, a number of well-established Swiss companies, including SONOVA Group, BOBST, Frewitt and Chinese leading company Microport opened their doors to the delegation. The participants also had the opportunity to visit the Pilot Free Trade Zone, which is set to map out the economic reform agenda of China.

We sincerely hope their one week trip will lead the way to a new era of cooperation between China and the canton of Neuchâtel.

We thank all the companies and partners who welcomed the delegation for their precious time.
